

Walk on the Wildside Quiz

Follow the route to find the answers

SAVE MARLOW'S GREENBELT

1	Which bird has a scientific name that translates as Chattering Acorn Gatherer?
2	Can you name this night-loving creature with a white heart-shaped face?
3	Who loves to eat the seeds of the teasels along this path?
4	Which rare bird likes to nest on the ground in fields like these?
5	Which insect has been on the Earth since before the time of the dinosaurs?
6	Which water based bird has chicks that are sometimes known as Humbugs?
7	Which animal might you find sleeping in a drey?
8	Do you know the name of the only type of mammal that can really fly?
9	Which minibeast has a single pair of legs on each of its many body segments?
10	Which local river dweller belongs to the Queen?
11	Which bird has been kept by humans since ancient times?
12	Which super swimmer lives in a holt?
13	Which regal bird lives by the water so it can easily catch fish to eat?
14	Do you know which mammal is distinguishable from its close relative by the black tip of its tail?
15	Can you name the bird that is sometimes mistaken for a garden ornament?
16	Which animal used to be called an urchin and helped us name the sea urchins name still used today?
17	Which insect has distinctive jaws, so large they can look like antlers?
18	Can you identify the bird that featured on many early Victorian Christmas cards?

We hope you enjoyed your walk in our beautiful countryside. Come back and you will always see something different as the seasons change.

If you are completing this walk on Sunday 2nd January, go to the stand near the church in the village to claim a prize.

To find out more about our campaign to protect our valuable greenbelt, please visit our website www.savemarlowsgreenbelt.org

SAVE MARLOW'S
GREENBELT